

Class action lawsuit: I am now free from most of these annoying calls. Some have managed to do work arounds to still get through. However, the elimination of this law would cause great personal discomfort. I propose that we begin a class action lawsuit against any company who chooses to support this. This may bring new business to Indiana when some of them go bankrupt.